

The Rotary Club of Cheyenne Responds to Community Action of Laramie County Needs

Media Contact:

Timothy Ernst, Executive Director, Community Action of Laramie County 307-635-9291

Brent Lathrop, President, Rotary Club of Cheyenne 307-286-7661

Cheyenne, Wyoming -- The Rotary Club of Cheyenne donates $1,500 to Community Action of Laramie County to help cover costs for needed items not covered under the Federal Cares Act funding and any other state and/or federal funding.

The Community Action of Laramie County (CALC) will use these funds to help cover costs of needed prescriptions, prescription co-pays, transportation (including gas vouchers, bus tickets, and taxi services), and costs for temporary guardianship for children.

“We are more than happy to support Community Action of Laramie County after they reached out to us in their time of need.” Says Rotary Club of Cheyenne President, Brent Lathrop. “This past year has been incredibly difficult for so many people, children and families in our community. This is a time we all need lend a helping hand when and where we can.”

Rotary is a global network of 1.2 million neighbors, friends, leaders, and problem-solvers who see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change – across the globe, in our communities, and in ourselves.

Solving real problems takes real commitment and vision. For more than 110 years, Rotary’s people and clubs take immediate action when our communities are in need. From literacy and peace to water and health, we are always working to better our world, and we stay committed to the end.

Community Action of Laramie County is a leader dedicated to reducing poverty in Laramie County by empowering people to achieve self-sufficiency through education, advocacy, intervention, and community partnerships.